

18+ Resources

NJ Division of Disabilities Services

Each college has its own policies regarding accommodations and modifications of programming, but the NJ Division of Disabilities Services has a wealth of information about policies and protections for college students with disabilities that impact learning.

Scan the QR code here to access NJ Division of Disabilities Services information

Vocational Rehabilitation Services

DVRS assists individuals with disabilities in obtaining employment and receiving other necessary services, including evaluations, counseling, and much more.

Scan the QR code here to access information on DVRS

Our goal is to provide families with information and resources that will allow their children to thrive in their school setting. We aim to end the systemic issues in education and break down barriers for parents, educators, and students to receive what they need.

We are in this together, one child at a time.

In need of our services or have questions? Contact Us:
hello@advocacynj.com

609-358-0914
www.advocacynj.com

NJ Statewide Resources

AdvocacyNJ

Advocacy | Neuro-affirming Coaching | Consultations

PO Box 155
Kingston NJ 08528-0155

609-358-0914
hello@advocacynj.com
www.advocacynj.com

Early Intervention (Birth-3)

Families with developmental concerns about children under the age of 3 may seek assistance from the Early Intervention System.

To get Early Intervention Services in NJ, call: 888-653-4463 or scan the QR code:

Additional Resources

Family Matters
Resource Directory

Regional Early Intervention
Collaboratives

Developmental Milestones: Birth to 36 Months

Support Services

The NJ Children's System of Care (CSOC)

There are a number of services that fall under the Children's System of Care, all designed to provide wrap-around services to your child in need. Visit the following links for more information:

For more information on CSOC, scan the code here:

Family Centered Care Services (FCCS)

Assistance with families experiencing complex, long-term medical and developmental disabilities by helping them navigate systems of care.

Additional Resources and Services

Scan the QR code to view additional services in NJ

Educational Resources

College Board Accommodations

Information on how to obtain accommodations and modifications on the SAT, PSAT, AP exams, and more

Scan the QR code here to access information about students with disabilities at College Board

Additional Resources

NJDOE Special Education Directories

NJ Parental Rights
in Special Education

